

Change

Teach me a new way to move on.
Hum a tune and sing a song.
Show me a new way to get going.
All my actions seem to be slowing.
Give me a better way to live by.
No longer alive, but longing to die.
Let me teach you how I move.
A whole new meaning, a whole new groove.
Allow me to show you my new way to go.
Too fast for the others, for me way too slow.
Can I give a better life,
to any of those who are afraid to die?
Teach me, show me, give to me please.
Let me, allow me, can I just tease?
