

Motherly Love

When the day begins you are always there,
and i can count on you at the end.
When the sun stops shining, the moon well lit.
I know on you I can depend.
During the day when i need some help,
you are on call all the time.
during the night if I have a nightmare,
you are there at the drop of a dime.
I love you more than my rhyming words say.
I love you more than my actions display.
I love you more than the world in which we live.
You love me, and that is all you need to give.

By: Natalie A. Thornhill

Dedicated to Donna Marie Thornhill.