

A Toast

Here is to having the guts ,
to make it to the glory.
Here is to facing the ugly,
that got us to this beauty.
Here is to all the years,
we did not put to waste.
This toast is to America.
Isn't our land great!

Here is to the heroes,
that built up our past.
Here is to the presidents,
that make our country last.
Here is to all the leaders,
that brought us through a lot.
This toast is to America,
and everything we have got.

Here is to the scars,
that tell us where we have been.
Here is to the fact,
that we know more than we have seen.
Here is to all the moments,
we have spent on top.
This toast is to America.
Though a toast cannot sum it up.
