

Repentance

Hidden devils beneath the skin.
Powerful God allows our sin.
If we repent we are doing good,
we repent doing as we should.
But if we leave it in our depths,
it daily causes little deaths.
Sin abides within itself.
we took it down, right off it's shelf.
And now it lingers within life,
if you repent there goes your strife.
Then sin runs away to hide,
you do not want it in your life.
So keep it where it deserves to be,
without a home, in the street.
Once you become strong again,
get on the street and help a friend.
Chase the sin into a hole
the leads to hell, satan's soul.
Let him simmer in his own dirt.
The streets are safe no-one else hurt.

By: Natalie A. Thornhill

Dedicated to Luke Stutsman.