

Sorry

Does God feel sorry for anything, anyone, any day;
that he created to be this way?

Does God feel sorry with what he made;
a world of evil, a world of hate?

Does God feel sorry for the suffering ones,
that could not hold up all his tons?

Does God feel sorry for the few that see,
what they need to do and be?

Does God feel sorry for all the pain,
that we live through again, again?

Does God feel sorry for everything around;
such poisoned water, such poisoned ground?

Does God feel sorry for any life,
that he brought to this world of strife?

Does God feel sorry like we do,
for the people with no love that is true?

Does God feel sorry for anything, any day, or anyone;
that is devastated before it is all done?
