

Stay Longer

If you stay a little longer,
the fireworks will begin.

If you stay a little longer,
the better team will win.

If you stay a little longer,
you will finally know the truth.

If you stay a little longer,
you will get to know your group.

If you stay a little longer,
your life could turn around.

If you stay a little longer,
you may get to leave this ground.
