

Time Alone

Maybe I will stumble, maybe I will fall.
Maybe I will leave before I have seen it all.
Wouldn't it be worth the time I would get alone?
Maybe I will walk, maybe I will run.
Maybe I will leave before I see the fun.
Couldn't it be worth the time I would get alone?
Maybe I will give, maybe I will get.
Maybe I will leave before the table is set.
Shouldn't it be worth the time I would get alone?
Maybe I will write, maybe I will call.
Maybe I will leave before I come at all.
Yes, it would be worth the time alone.

By: Natalie A. Thornhill

Dedicated to Justin Stutzman and Arthur Wiggs.