

Weak and Bold

When cruelty caves in,
and the pain comes double fold.
That is when you can determine,
who is weak from who is bold.
After hardships come unnumbered,
and deceit takes it's toll.
That is when you will find out,
who is weak and who is bold.
When the summer turns to winter,
and the heat gives way to cold.
That is when we all will know,
who is weak from who is bold.
When our strengths are used to weaken,
and our secrets have been told.
That is when we will decide,
who is weak and who is bold.
After patriotism has been challenged,
and many have given up their "gold".
That is when we will decipher,
who is weak from who is bold.
Now that everyone is praying,
and some have taken scold.
We will all be sure to point out,
Who is weak and who is bold.
